PLEASE SEND THIS FORM TO: Peter Hambly, NPC Secretary, Harvest Barn, Bow Street, Great Ellingham, ATTLEBOROUGH, Norfolk, NR17 1JA or see: <http://www.northernpennineclub.org.uk/contact/contact.htm> for email. Emails/scanned copies acceptable.

Your application will be considered at a committee meeting (held on the 1st Saturday of each month) and the NPC Secretary will contact you afterwards. The current subscription for probationary members is £37 (or £20 if a member of the BCA via another club or directly). The NPC subscription year runs to 31st December each year.

ABOUT YOUR DATA: Only sufficient data will be sought and retained in order to administer the NPC and communicate with its members. It will be shared with: a) other members of the club in the form of an address list and b) the British Caving Association for their membership/administrative purposes. However it will not be supplied to others or used for any other purposes without express consent of the member. The information supplied on this form will be stored on a computer. If you do not want certain information included on the members address list (e.g. email, mobile number), please contact the NPC Secretary.

JOINING THE NPC

BENEFITS OF NPC MEMBERSHIP

- Membership entitles you to numerous things including:
- Ability to attend Club Meets - We aim to have meets in the Yorkshire Dales at least once a month (typically on the first Saturday of the month) and also several week trips to Europe or elsewhere
- People to cave with.
- Access to club tackle – we keep a good selection of SRT ropes, ladders, etc which is available for members to borrow.
- Accommodation at Greenclose - at excellent prices (discounted for members) that doesn't need to be booked in advance. Once a full member, ability to sign up to two guests in.
- Club dinners – 2 a year – typically the winter one is in the Dales and the summer one somewhere else.
- Access to Club Library – the club holds an extensive library dating back to its formation in 1946 and beyond.
- Newsletter – 3 or 4 times a year.
- Public Liability Insurance - via BCA.
- Access to club email group – this acts as a discussion form and provides members-only file storage
